Clackamas Town Center Shooting Statement

“As we pause to reflect on today’s shooting in a place where families are supposed to feel safe, the reality of the world we live in is evident; there is too much violence in our society.

The National Women’s Coalition Against Violence & Exploitation applaud the first responders and all of those inside that secured the mall following the shooting; the quick action by all, obviously prevented further loss today.

Our thoughts go out to everyone impacted by today’s act of violence and our prayers are with the families who tonight mourn the loss of loved ones.”
