National Correspondent Questions NBA

National, U.S.A. - When the scandal involving Clippers owner Donald Sterling broke, Inside Edition correspondent and NWCAVE media council member Lisa Guerrero stood out front and center during national news coverage. Guerrero asked what many consider one of the toughest questions during a news conference with NBA Commissioner Adam Silver, following his announcement of harsh sanctions against Sterling who made reprehensible racist remarks.

"The word you used specifically, was outrage, you said you were personally outraged, yet many people believe that they are outraged that, for years, people have known that this man is a racist slumlord and the NBA hasn't done anything until today. Can you please answer why?" asked Guerrero.

"I can't speak to past actions other than to say that when specific evidence was brought to the NBA, we acted," Silver responded.

A number of viewers expressed via social media they were not impressed with Silver's answer to that specific question, but they were impressed with Guerrero's inquiry which illustrated a clear understanding of the history of past discrimination and harassment allegations against Sterling.
